

"PEPPERMINT CLUB"

Directed by: Michael Klich
04 February 2011 – 16 July 2011

Premiere: 22 February 2011

The 'fifties. Petticoats are the latest craze from America and an increasing number of young women wear them with glaring red lipstick. The city centers abound with dotted dresses, headbands and leather jackets. Teenagers dress like Marlon Brando, James Dean or Horst Buchholz, drive around with Vespas and permanently chewing gum. The whole country enthusiastically dances Rock'n'Roll, Bossa Nova and Jive.

The immortal hits, the never-ending longing and the unrestrained joy of love turn the 50s into a continuous success:

At the PEPPERMINT CLUB in the Wintergarten all hell will soon break loose every evening.

All the top hits of that time will be performed live. From the wild, rebellious rockabilly to the German middle-of-the-road hits which have been and continue to be a guarantee for cheerfulness.

There will be dancing, celebration, rocking and laughter. The energy laden live band "The Mint Tones" will present the fascinating lively singer Nini Stadlmann, fifties dancers will provide the show with the right swing and top acrobats from all over the world will take care of fun and thrills.

A vibrant company which always dreamed of getting off the ground with action packed Rock'n'Roll music reinvents the 50s.

PEPPERMINT CLUB at the Wintergarten: colorful, fresh, exciting.
